SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER PREVENTION AND EARLY INTERVENTION

OBJECTIVES

This ECHO is focused on substance use prevention and early intervention systems in school contexts. Prevention work is complex, interprofessional, and requires strong partnerships. Sessions will exemplify successful models, empower teams to vision together, and assist champions to advance their own prevention efforts. This ECHO is funded by Oregon's Alcohol and Drug Policy Commission.

Topics will include:

- Evidence-Based Early Intervention
- Universal and Culturally Specific Screening
- Family-Integrated Interventions
- Youth Diversion: Early Intervention
- School-Community Organization Partnerships
- Collaboration and Leveraging Cross-Sector Funding
- Compliance with ODE Division 22
